FLORENCE, SC – The Tuesday evening seasonal market at the City Center Farmers Market will wrap up on June 14th with a celebration! We're excited to present VEG Out Night with Plant Empowered Florence. There will be free food samples and thanks to our sponsorship by HopeHealth, we'll also have FREE bath bomb painting by Bubble Boutique, FREE tote bag making with the DIY Place of Florence, and dollar off Pelicans Snoballs with an "I Voted" sticker! Market shoppers can also enjoy local produce from Ellerbe Vegetable Farms and pick-up a homemade to-go dinner from Sweet Pea's Catering and Best Thai Food.

VEG Out Night will showcase plant-based companies and products for those who want to taste what's fresh and new or become more health-conscious and fit. Bring the family and make plans to VEG OUT at the final Tuesday evening seasonal market from 4pm-7pm!

While the Tuesday evening market is coming to a close, the City Center Farmers Market will continue to be available on Saturdays from 9:00am – 1:00pm with local shopping options from a variety of farmers, producers, and artisans.
